"OUR FACE TO THE WORLD"

Members of the Society are invited to a tour of the exhibit "Our Face to the World: The Clothing of James and Elizabeth Monroe" on Saturday, April 10th, beginning at 10:00 a.m.

The James Monroe Museum and Memorial Library is located at 908 Charles Street in Fredericksburg. On-street parking is available.

The exhibit is the culmination of nearly four years of intensive work assessing and conserving the 48 pieces in the collection.

Meghan Budinger, Assistant Director & Curator, will lead our tour, sharing information on what the costumes, including the wedding gown Elizabeth Kortright wore when she married James Monroe in 1786 and the suit he wore while Minister to France, have taught us.

Space is limited so please contact Event Coordinator Naomi McPherson at 540/752-4979 or e-mail nana4979@comcast.net early to reserve your spot.

One lucky member attending the event will receive a copy of the exhibit catalog pictured below.

E V E N T S C O M M I T T E E

Saturday, March 20
Virginia Farm Bureau Women's Conference:

On Saturday, March 20th, at 7:00 p.m. at the Fredericksburg Hospitality House, we will be performing a three-class (gentry, middlin and lower sorts) reverse strip. Event Coordinator is Lyn Padgett (540/841-7275).

Events Committee Meeting:

The April Events Committee Meeting will be rescheduled and an e-mail with the date and location will be forthcoming. Please call Lyn Padgett at 540/841-7275 if you have questions.

Sunday, April 18
Mock Tea Tasting:

On April 18th, 1:00-3:00 p.m. at the Mary Washington House, we will sample tea items and plan for entertainment for the RCHS Spring

Tea on May 15th. Event Coordinators Catherine Bell (540/659-5646) and Elaine Sturgeon (540/785-2168) will be sending out an e-mail with further information concerning this meeting.

Saturday, April 24 Remembrance Day at the History of Culpeper Museum:

On Saturday, April 24th, 11:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m., we will perform dances of the 18th century. This is the first time RCHS will be participating in this event so we would like to have a large number of our group in attendance. If you can volunteer or would like further information, please call Event Coordinator Elaine Sturgeon at 540/785-2168.

Saturday, May 1
Colonial Dames XVII Century:

We will be demonstrating and teaching English Country Dance for the Colonial Dames XVII Century on Saturday, May 1st, at 1:30 p.m. (location TBD). Dress for this event is "dress." If you are interested in participating or have questions about attire, please call Event Coordinator Lyn Padgett at 540/841-7275.

Saturday, May 15
RCHS Spring Tea:

At St. George's Episcopal Church, 1:00-3:00 p.m. Our favorite event—we need cooks, servants, "Mothers" and entertainers. If you don't care to volunteer in one of these positions, consider buying a ticket and joining us for tea. Stay tuned for details from Event Coordinators Catherine Bell and Elaine Sturgeon.

S E W I N G C O M M I T T E E

Sunday, March 14
Sewing Circle:

We will continue working on our

English gowns on Sunday, March 14th, from 11:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. at the home of Catherine Taylor. Please call her in advance at 540/775-0852 to let her know you are coming and for directions.

Sandra Piercey will continue the topic “18th Century Trades and Crafts: Supporting the RCHS Education Program” after the April 6th business meeting.

Building on the last session, Sandra will assist those of you who want further guidance in selecting or enhancing the “person” you would like to portray in our RCHS school and education programs.

Lyn Padgett will be presenting the topic “The History of Tea and Preparation for the RCHS Spring Tea” after the May 4th business meeting.

We are all very excited that our RCHS Spring Tea has been scheduled and confirmed for May 15th. To prepare for our tea, we will be learning about the history and social customs of “taking tea.”

If you have never been to an RCHS Tea, this is your opportunity to learn how you can be an active participant. If you have participated in previous teas, this is your opportunity to share your enthusiasm for the event with our newer members. Please bring a tea cup, saucer and tea spoon. Tea and light refreshments will be provided. Please call Lyn Padgett (540/841-7275) if you have questions.

NEWSLETTER GUIDELINES

Our time period and location is 18th century Virginia with our area of concentration being Fredericksburg and the Rappahannock River Valley. The Rappahannock River Valley covers from the ford of the Rappahannock and Rapidan Rivers down to the Chesapeake Bay. Our particular interests lie in the areas of Fredericksburg, Spotsylvania, Stafford, King George and Caroline Counties.

Any member may, and is encouraged to, submit articles for publication. Committee chairpersons are especially encouraged to write reports of past and upcoming activities. The newsletter is distributed to and read by people with varying degrees of expertise. Articles should be accurate in detail, sources/references must be given for factual information and opinions of the writer must be clearly identified as such. This newsletter will be posted online, so be very careful about listing your sources and getting permission for reprints. The editor has the final say on content, format and deadlines. Items for the newsletter should be addressed to the Editor, c/o RCHS, P.O. Box 7823, Fredericksburg, VA 22404 or e-mailed to nana4979@comcast.net.
